

Home & School Mission Statement

St. Sebastian Home & School engages parents and staff in community-building, fundraising and communication to support the integration of the school's values to engage, inspire, grow, love and serve in the lives of our students and families.